Re: Recommendation for BDO Audit Firm

It is with confidence and without reservation that we recommend BDO, and specifically the audit partner leading our engagement, Prelini Baronian, to any organisation seeking a professional and client-focused audit service.

Throughout our engagement, BDO demonstrated a thorough and well-organised approach to audit planning and execution, delivering within the agreed timeline while maintaining clear and consistent communication. Their ability to navigate changes and challenges with flexibility and a solutions-oriented mindset reflected well on the firm and its leadership.

What set this engagement apart was the personal commitment shown by the audit partner. Their presence, accessibility, and genuine investment in our experience as a client went beyond what we typically expect from an audit relationship. We felt well-supported at every stage of the process.

We recommend BDO and their team without hesitation and believe they would bring the same level of dedication and professionalism to any audit engagement.
