SPECIALISED SERVICES

Liquidations

It is often inevitable that formal liquidation will be the most beneficial outcome for all stakeholders and for this we have a team of experienced insolvency practitioners with the ability to deal with any matter, no matter how small or large. We are also able to turn a formal liquidation process into a subsequent restructuring in terms of the Companies Act, 71 of 2008.

Insolvencies

When a debtor is unable to pay its debts and other liabilities as they become due the estate is regarded as insolvent. Our professionals have the knowledge and experience to assist and guide investors, lenders, service providers, unions and the debtor during the winding up process. The main objective of insolvency laws in most legal systems is to provide a mechanism to satisfactorily address the outstanding claims from the assets of the debtor. The Insolvency Act 24 of 1936, regulates the process of the winding up of insolvent estates, partnerships and trusts.

Receiverships

We act as receiver in divorces where the parties cannot come to an agreement on the division of the estate. Receivership is a cost-effective and efficient way to divide an estate after a divorce to the benefit of both parties.

Curatorships

A highly specialised service that involves managing the financial affairs of people who are incapable of managing their own affairs. These include estates of minor children and mentally challenged persons. We also take appointments as curator bonis in asset forfeiture matters in terms of the Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998.

Deceased Estates

The loss of a loved one, whether a family member, spouse or close friend brings emotional turmoil. At BDO, we understand that the heirs may not know where to start or may feel lost and uncertain about the future. That is why we have a dedicated team to take care of the administration of the estate and help guide you through the process. The Administration of Estates Act, 66 of 1965 determines the process to be followed for the administration of deceased estates.

Insolvent Deceased Estates

If the liabilities exceed all the assets in a deceased estate, then the estate is insolvent. Our team of experts can assist with the winding up of insolvent deceased estates to ensure the best possible outcome to creditors and heirs in accordance with the relevant legislation.
